

Consultant Directory

Overview

Southside Community Partners Consultant Directory is designed to provide easy access to local business service providers for the thousands of individual from nonprofit organizations, governmental agencies, and civic groups of the Southside community who visit ConnectSouthside.org for information and communication. Southside Community Partners Consultant Directory represents an entrepreneurial venture; the directory membership fees help to support programs that serve to strengthen the community.

Service Area

We encourage participation in the directory to all for-profit entities and businesses that provide a service in any area of capacity-building and organizational development in the Southside community including Chesterfield County, Colonial Heights, Dinwiddie County, Hopewell, Petersburg, Prince George County, Surry County and Sussex County.

Features

Allows users to search a listing of for-profit entities and businesses by name and skill area including:

- Board development/governance
- financial management/accounting
- fundraising/development
- legal/law
- marketing/communications
- organizational development/planning
- program planning/evaluation
- technology

Contact information is made available for basic membership; web address, social media links, bio and a sampling of organizations that have worked with the listed for-profit is available with premium membership.

Pricing Information

Basic placement listing; updated annually - Free upon request

12 month premium placement membership - $100

- Additional logo placement options for premium membership - $50/six months or $100/year
- Online Registration & Payment options available

Policy Guidelines

- This Consultant Directory is not meant to be a complete list of resources. The information contained within this directory reflects information provided by for-profit entities and business who chose to become members in this direction.
- No implication of endorsement by Southside Community Partners-ConnectSouthside of product or sponsor may be made.
- Southside Community Partners reserves the right to reject, cancel or remove at any time any membership for any reason. In such a case, prompt notice and a prorated refund will be provided.
- These guidelines are intended to provide general guidance. They are not inclusive or exhaustive and are subject to change at the discretion of Southside Community Partners at any time.

For Further Information

If you require assistance accessing or using the directory on ConnectSouthside.org please contact Southside Community Partners at (804) 458-6329 ext 2013 or email southsideinfo@connectnetwork.org.